"OK class, tomorrow you will have a substitute teacher. Her name is Cruella De Vil," Mrs. Smamagin said cheerfully. "Now you all be nice to her. This is her first class, and she won't have to discipline, I hope,"

"Yes Mrs.Smamagin," we all said in unison.

My Comments:

The next day Cruella, as promised, was the substitute teacher. "Hello students. I have written a schedule for you to follow," she told them.

"Yay," they said, "we love to learn."

"That's good. Now the first class is called Geometry. What is Geometry? Oh, that's right, shapes," she said.

Then she drew a circle, a square, a triangle, and a rectangle on the board. "OK class, I want you to name all of these shapes," she instructed.

My Comments:

"Oh and I forgot, if you get one wrong you have to sit in the corner and calculate the number pi for the rest of the day," she said with a smug grin.

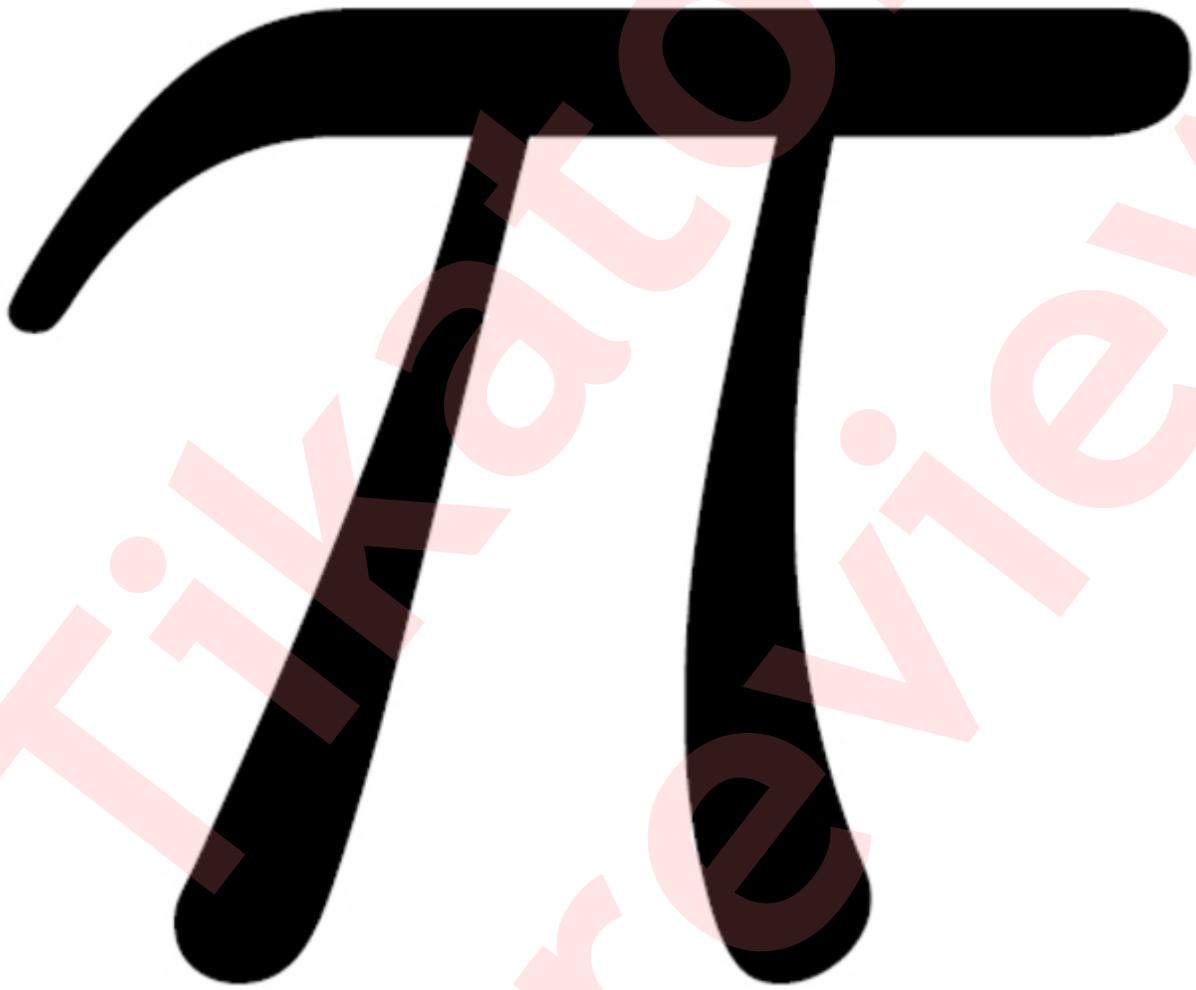

"Those shapes are a circle, a square, a triangle and finally a rectangle," Billy told her.

"Such a smart boy, well then, can you spell Elephant?" she asked.

"E-L-E-P-H-A-N-T," he answered.

"OK then, you're now going to go to Grade 15," she said.

My Comments:

"What is grade 15?" Billy asked.

"Grade 15 is sitting in the corner calculating pi for not knowing what Grade 15 is," she answered.

"But I am only in grade 2," Billy told her.

"GO!" she demanded.

"You can't do that. He is only a little boy!" Dennis protested.

"Oh, can't I? Well then, Billy has to calculate it, then multiply it by 1.45368792534," she said.

"Bu--," began Dennis.

"Do not help me anymore Dennis," Billy said.

My Comments:

"Now on to class 2, Social Studies. Everyone go make a new 28 year old friend. When you're done, it will be recess, and then it is time to go home," she said.

After recess, she called everyone back to the class. When they got there she said, "OK everyone, one more thing before you leave. Sort all of the markers by color alphabetically," she demanded.

My Comments:

After they sorted the markers, they all ran as fast as they could to get home. When they all got home, their mothers asked them, "How was school today?"

Every mother heard the very same response, "Alright."
